

The Browers

Summer 2011

Many changes have taken place in the last few months and we want to bring you up to speed. First, many of you know that we had planned to move to Florida where the New Tribes Mission home office is located. Once there, the plan was that Josh would devote his time completely to I.T. Security for NTM. While this is still a plan for the future, we have decided that for now we will remain at the Bible School here in Jackson, Michigan for at least the next three years. The main reason being that we don't feel that we have the finances to pay for the higher living expenses there. Josh will continue to run and maintain the network here at NTBI while also working on I.T. Security for New Tribes Mission. We will also continue to raise our support for the next 3 years, until we get to where we need to be to be able to move to Florida. If you have any questions about this decision, we would be happy to answer them.

Another change is our place of residence. We are so blessed to have been able to move from our small apartment to a house that is much larger. This home is also owned by New Tribes, and we are so thankful for the extra space. Several people from church came out and helped us with the move and we are so thankful. One couple even rented us a moving truck (we realize now that the move would have taken forever without it). We are looking forward to packing in the students during our coffee nights this fall!

The last change we'd like to announce (and also another reason for having a larger home) is that we are expecting our 2nd baby end of Feb, early March 2012! We are very excited about this though a little nervous about having two now that Seth is very close to being able to walk! However we are happy that they will be so close together in age. That's all the announcements for now :). Thank you for your continued prayer and support for our family and for those that our ministry effects. We are so thankful for you all and hope to hear from you soon!

In His Love,
Josh and Mandi Brower

Someone just turned 1! Happy Birthday Seth!
